Robin Hood: Friend or Foe?

This term we will explore the wonderful world of Sherwood Forest and delve into the legend of Robin Hood and his Merry Men.

This term we will be ...

Historians finding out about local history and asking moral questions about whether his actions were right or wrong.

Scientists exploring the plants of the forest and beyond, asking and answering questions about what they need to grow and survive. As well as observers, looking at what happens when plants don't have access to certain essential things.

Writers, creating our own legends, writing explanation's around the life cycles of plants and using stories about plant to inspire our own.

Artists looking at the work of Franz Bauer and using different media to make some of our own botanical pictures.

We will be using a range beautiful texts to support our learning.
