

A large field of vibrant red poppies stretches across the foreground and middle ground. The background shows a sunset over a horizon line, with the sun low and casting a warm, golden glow across the sky and the tops of the flowers. The overall mood is somber yet beautiful.

Create your own First World War Fact Sheet

Write about a memory of your own. Write about a time in your life which was important to you.

Design your own mindfulness poppy colouring design to reflect on the tragedies of the First World War.

Design and create your own recruitment poster.

Why should we Remember?

Find out about one of the women who was significant during the First World War and create an information poster about her.

Find out about and have a go at making a war time recipe.

Draw a picture and label it to show the tough conditions and difficulties the men faced every day in the trenches.