Were the Anglo Saxons fierce fighters or friendly farmers?

Our new History topic this half term will be based on the Anglo Saxons and the impact they had on Britain.

We will look at the Anglo Saxon kingdoms built in Britain and how the duo of Hengist and Horsa caused problems that rippled through the country. Our work will also send us to Ireland and Scotland where we will find out about the introduction of Christianity in Britain.

This term we will be ...

Historians and geographers, uncovering the reasons for the Anglo Saxons coming to invade our country. Who were they and why did they invade and conquer our land? We'll discuss what their lives were like and what it'd have been like to live in a Anglo Saxon settlement.

Readers, continuing to travel along with our new class read. We will also read different sources of information from the Anglo Saxon period.

Religious experts, finding out about the life of St Cuthbert and St Aiden.

Archaeologists, we will look at Anglo Saxon artefacts and identify what this tells us about the life of an Anglo Saxon.

Making comparisons between the lives of the Anglo Saxons and other periods of History we know about.

Decision makers – we will be answering our big question!
